BOSTON HEIGHTS, Ohio, Oct. 21, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- Arhaus, a leader in heirloom-quality furniture and décor, introduces its Holiday 2021 Collection, inspired by the rugged landscapes and natural beauty of Aspen, where its new Arhaus Studio location will open this winter. "We're excited to present a collection that comes from the heart and is crafted with a deep sense of gratitude," said John Reed, CEO and Co-Founder of Arhaus. "We wait all year for the flurry of the holidays. Whether you're looking forward to gathering with loved ones, enjoying the quiet comfort of home, or anticipating a new chapter that's about to begin, this collection celebrates these moments and more while remaining true to Arhaus' foundation of artisan-crafted, sustainably-sourced design."

To make the holidays even more magical, Arhaus has introduced whimsical adornments from pre-lit trees to timeless treasures like putzcrackers and nostalgic village advent calendars placed in snowy, wooden scenes. Giftables such as sophisticated barware and classic games like tic-tac-toe and chess, handcrafted by artisans in Mexico, promise to leave a lasting impression, while stocking holders like the galvanized farmhouse and Dutch house are a perfect match for the brand's faux garland assortment, presenting ample opportunity to create a layered and merry look along the mantle.

The debut of the Holiday Collection precedes the brand's Arhaus Studio opening in Aspen later this year. As the company's newest retail venture, the concept offers an elevated, service-first approach to custom design in a more intimate setting.

"Aspen's unparalleled charm, commanding landscape, and engaged community make it a source of inspiration and an idyllic destination for the Arhaus Studio concept," continued Reed. Aspen will join the brand's growing list of Studio locations, which include Carmel and Burlingame in California.

This season, Arhaus also expands its furniture offerings with new sofa seating, specifically the Norwood and Madrone sectionals which feature unique silhouettes and extra-soft feels, as well as the Tuscany dining table which is ready to stand strong as the centerpiece to any gathering, now available in a radiant Fontaine Blue finish.

Additional collection expansions and highlights across Arhaus' holiday assortment include:

- Snugg Collection: Expanding on last season's introduction of the Snugg Chair comes the ottoman and loveseat. Available in Grizzly Grey, Arctic Wolf, Big Bear Cream, and Big Bear Sable, the collection is nothing but a warm embrace.
