BOSTON HEIGHTS, Ohio, Oct. 20, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Arhaus (NASDAQ: ARHS), a leader in premium artisan-crafted home furnishings, today announced the opening of its largest showroom to date in Old Pasadena. Spanning 38,600 square feet within the historic Penn Oil Building, the new space blends architectural character with Arhaus' signature craftsmanship and timeless design. Surrounded by Pasadena's premier boutiques, restaurants, and cultural landmarks, the location marks Arhaus' twelfth in California and fifth in the greater Los Angeles area, joining The Grove, Topanga, Thousand Oaks and Del Amo showrooms.

"The opening of our Pasadena location marks a major milestone for Arhaus," said John Reed, Arhaus co-founder and CEO. "As our largest showroom to date, it represents our continued commitment to serving clients in Southern California. We're honored to join the Old Pasadena community and its rich tradition of craftsmanship and culture—balancing sophistication with accessibility."

The Pasadena location offers complimentary design services to clients, extending a helping hand on home projects of any scale. Whether reviving a single space or furnishing an entire home, Arhaus' team of seasoned interior designers and design consultants is ready to provide guidance both in store and online. In celebration of the opening, Arhaus has partnered with the Altadena Girls organization—a local nonprofit that creates safe, inspiring spaces where teen girls can explore who they are, express themselves freely, and create lasting community—to furnish its first-ever dedicated space with artisan-crafted Arhaus pieces. The project reflects Arhaus' ongoing commitment to giving back in the communities where it opens new showrooms, and creating environments that foster connection, belonging, and inspiration.
